

Where will the NRCM be in 2028?

Getting it right first time

Visual abstracts: dissemination 2.0

The BIG Debate

This house believes that all collaborative research should be published under corporate authorship

NRCM 2018

breakout sessions

	Carol Nash Hall	Baronial Hall	Association Room	Audit Room	Baronial Dining Hall
10.00	Get me an: Academic Foundation Programme Clinical Lectureship Clinician Scientist	Trials and tribulations of setting up an RCT – what we learnt Miss Lyndsay Pearce	Joint breakout session: BURST and BNTRC	Methodology Booking In Session	Delphi Steering Groups
11.00	Granule Course	How and why to run feasibility studies Dr Kerry Avery	Geriatric Medicine Research Collaborative breakout
12.30	LUNCH
14.00	What the NIHR can offer you	Data Management – tips and tricks	North West Breast Collaborative breakout
15.00	Student Abstract Session	ASiT Breakout Session
16.00	How to get funding - NIHR	‘But it’s not proper research, is it?’ - Debunking the myths and misconceptions around collaborative research

M A N C H E S T E R

7th December 2018 Chetham's School of Music & Library

NWRCsurgery@gmail.com